Newsletter No.185

Hello every one,

Welcome to another newsletter. Winter is starting to turn, days are lengthening, the temperature is rising during the day and the birds are active in mating and nesting. A sure sign spring is not far away. Our only problem is the lack of rain. While we have a green tinge there is no sub moisture. Drought is on everyone's television, radio station, newspaper and social media. We are still currently very fortunate here, one good rain and there will be a harvest (other than those crops that have been irrigated.) How lucky are we to have irrigation.

That one good rain? Nine months now since we have had a rain event in excess of 12mm rainfall on one occasion, that is very dry, yet we still sit on that verge of getting through with a harvest. Irrigation water this season is a real problem, with zero allocation and the price of water exceeding $370.00 per megalitre to buy. The majority of farmers will be forced to shut down their primary production activities over summer. This will have a negative impact both on society and economically on our region. We all need to be mindful of the current situation; keep an eye out to help one another and be understanding. Guess we are in for a reality check, a grounding in true values. We all need to support the many local events coming up in our region to help provide some relief from the focus of the drought and guarantee these events success. The Finley show, football and netball finals, Berrigan races in August and November plus many, many more.

Cheers and Good Health—John P Lane (Managing Director)
