Newsletter No. 233

Hello to everyone, finally the weather has improved! Still cool but the rain has stopped and we are finally drying out. Harvest has started, later than most years but at least there is a harvest—not like some areas of Australia where the crops have been completely washed away. This Friday evening is the Annual Christmas Night Market with Carols & the Red Cross Fashion Extravaganza. The weather looks great—Ray Macartney is the key entertainer and will be supported by some very talented Carols Singers. The clothing at the Fashion Extravaganza is of exceptional quality this year—a great opportunity to pick up a bargain. December 2nd, a chance for us all to take a breather and relax for the night and enjoy family & friends in a wonderful atmosphere. Yes the free breakfast is again on in 2022—back for our 28th breakfast supported by the Lions Club. Saturday 17th December 2022 - all welcome. Christmas light winners announced plus the Name The Galah Sculpture winner will also be announced. Enjoy your lead up to Christmas, think to shop and support local.

Cheers and Good Health—John P Lane (Managing Director)
